CHOLERA IN THE ORIENT

Japan and North China Fairly Alive with Germs.

SEVENTEEN THOUSAND DEATHS.

Notwithstanding the Efforts of the Officials to Suppress the News in Regard to the Plague the Truth Has at Last Come to Light—An Edict from the Emperor.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—Notwithstanding the efforts of the Chinese and Japanese officials to suppress the news in regard to the cholera the truth has at last come to light concerning the plague. Japan and North China are fairly alive with cholera germs. Siberian officials have declared Japanese open ports infected, and from official sources it is learned that over 17,000 people have died in Japan from the plague since its start in Pescadores. In China the disease has gained a firm foothold.

Advices by the steamer Rio Janeiro report that in Tokio the heat is terrific and the disease germs have been nursed by the climate into virulent life. On the Rio Janeiro list could be learned concerning Yokohama, but nevertheless the plague is raging there. In China, at Hio Fow, the disease is spreading rapidly. Miss Turner and the child of Dr and Mrs. McFarland of the Chu Chai London mission, were stricken and died. At Nanking much illness prevails among the foreigners, many of them having been forced to flee from the country. The ravages of cholera in Japan are far greater than have been reported. Up to Aug. 28, just before the Rio Janeiro sailed, 17,258 deaths from the disease were reported.

THE CHINESE RIOTS.

An Edict from the Emperor Against Such Outbreaks.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—The attitude of the emperor of China in relation to the recent outbreaks against missionaries is shown in an edict recently issued by the emperor, which is published in a local paper.

The emperor says: "Since the opening of international commerce with western countries foreigners have always resided in the island districts at peace and harmony with their native neighbors, and we, in our imperial love for both natives and foreigners alike, have time and again commanded our high provincial authorities to pay extra heed constantly to protect the latter from harm.

"Judge of our extreme indignation then upon hearing recently first of the riots in the capital of Szechuen, where chapels have been destroyed and burned down by the rioters, thereby fanning the flames of destruction far and wide, in so much that a number of sub-prefect and sub-districts simultaneously followed in the footsteps of Cheng-Tu, and now to receive news from Fu-Kien, reporting that evil characters have murdered and wounded a very large number of foreigners at Kutien, going so far in their ruthless ferocity as to murder even women and infants.

"With reference to the Szechuen riots, a number of rioters have already been arrested, and will undergo trials, but the chiefs and heads of the Fu-Kien murderers are still at large, and and we commanded Pien Pao Chuan and Chin Yu (Tartar general of Foo-Chow) to set to work without delay at the head of the military and district officers and speedily arrest these wicked characters, for none shall be allowed to escape the meshes of the law.

"We would command the various Tartar generals, viceroys and governors of the empire to impress upon all their subordinates the necessity of granting thorough protection to all the chapels, etc., in their districts. They are also to issue proclamations exhorting the people to abstain from listening to scurrilous tales which excite unfound suspicions in the breasts of all. If there be any who shall dare to raise disturbances in the future they shall be at once punished with the utmost severity of the law."

Little value is attached by foreigners to this edict. It is now well understood that the orders of the emperor of China have virtually no force outside the walls of Pekin. On several previous occasions edicts even more forcibly worded have emanated from the throne, but foreign property and foreign lives remain as insecure as ever in the interior of China.

The Kucheng Executions.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 19.—Although the more humble among those concerned in the massacre of missionaries at Kucheng have been punished, the utmost efforts of the British consul have been unavailing to induce the authorities to deal with the viceroy of the province and with other high officials, who are alleged to have been responsible for the riots. It is hoped that Great Britain will insist that these offenders shall be brought to justice.

Fatal Fire in Wisconsin.

OSHKOSH, Wis., Sept. 19.—Oshkosh had a $250,000 fire yesterday and before it was extinguished, a sash and door factory, one of the largest in the country; a wagon factory, 6,000,000 feet of lumber, two brick saloons and a number of dwellings were destroyed. John Zeilman, foreman of the sash department of the Morgan company, went back into the factory after his tools and lost his life. His charred remains were recovered last night.

Silver Forces United.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The free silver forces of the United States are now united and headquarters will be established in Chicago. General A. J. Warner, president of the National Bimetallic league, is the president of the consolidated body, and Secretary Edward B. Light, of the American Bimetallic union, occupies a similar position in the new body.

Fatally Gored by a Bull.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Sept. 19.—In attempting to stop a runaway bull yesterday afternoon Mrs. Jesse LaBar, aged 65 years of Bangor, near here, was gored so severely that she will die. Her skull was split open exposing the brain.

Track Walker Found Dead.

YORK, Pa., Sept. 19.—David Rennol, track walker on the Western Maryland railroad, was found dead on the tracks. Rennol's body, besides being badly mutilated, was severely burned. It is the general impression that he was struck by lightning while walking the track and then run over by a freight train.

To Build a Railroad in China.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—A dispatch from Shanghai says that the emperor has sanctioned the immediate building of a railway from Shanghai through Sachau and Chin Kiang to Nanking, in order to forestall the Japanese demands.

A Repairman Killed at Lancaster.

LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 19.—Henry S. Horner, of Florin, a track repairman on the Pennsylvania railroad, was struck by the newspaper express and instantly killed. Horner was 55 years old and leaves a large family.

THE DURRANT TRIAL.

Organist King When Put on the Stand Causes a Sensation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—The prosecution in the Durrant case will complete its direct case early next week. The opening statement of the defense is waited with much interest. It will be the first intimation of what it expects to prove. It has been said that an alibi for Durrant would be proved, and further that another man than Durrant went to the church when the prisoner is said to have entered.

Yesterday Miss Emma L. Turner was the first witness. She is a member of the Emanuel church, and knows Durrant. She testified that on April 3 she was not with defendant in Emanuel church. Mrs. Leake had testified that the girl she saw walking into Emanuel church with Durrant was either Blanche Lamont or Miss Turner.

Organist George King was then put upon the stand to prove that he saw the prisoner in the church at 5 p. m. on April 3, almost an hour after Durrant was said by Mrs. Leak to have entered the church. King proved an unwilling witness, apparently shielding Durrant whenever possible. He admitted that the defendant and his attorneys advised him to give his testimony as given at the preliminary examination.

This created a tremendous sensation, but on cross examination he said he had not been asked to change his evidence. He told how he had come into Emanuel church to play a new piece. Durrant appeared, pale, dishevled and sick, breathless and without hat or coat. Durrant said that while repairing some gas pipes he had been overcome. Durrant helped him carry a small organ from the front part of the church to another. The prisoner appeared exhausted, and was frequently obliged to stop and rest. The witness said he detected no escaping gas.

Philadelphia Democrats.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19.—Considerable excitement prevailed at the Democratic county convention yesterday over a resolution presented by the committee on resolutions, deeming it inexpedient to make any nomination against the Republican nominee for, and present incumbent of, the office of district attorney, George S. Graham. After much interruption and amid great confusion, a vote was finally taken, and the committee's report was sustained by a vote of 458 to 334. The following nominations were made: City controller, Frederick B. Vandergrift; recorder of deeds, John J. Curley; coroner, Dr. Edwin S. Harrington; clerk of quarter sessions, Edwin J. Sellers.

Tornado in Michigan.

DETROIT, Sept. 19.—A tornado passed over a portion of the state during the night. At Charlevoix a house was demolished and fences, trees and outhouses scattered in the path of the wind. No one was hurt. Port Austin reports a heavy storm. Considerable damage was done to buildings, and three lives are said to have been lost by the collapse of a house in Hume township. At Sand Beach nearly every building was more or less damaged, two houses and twelve barns being destroyed. Near Kinde two children of Richard Tott were killed by falling timbers and three others injured.

Two Thousand Miners Strike.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 19.—The Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg railway advices are that 2,000 miners employed in the mines of Bell, Lewis & Yates, at Dubois, Pa., are on strike. The trouble dates back to the hard times of 1893, when the men asked for a reduction to thirty cents per ton in order that by so doing they might be kept at work. When business began to revive the men asked for the old scale of wages and were refused. The mines affected by the strike are the Reynoldsville, London and Dubois and two other mines not operated so extensively.

Discharged Officers Reinstated.

OMAHA, Sept. 18.—The A. P. A. police commission has discharged Chief of Police White and replaced him with ex-Sergeant Sigwart as acting chief, who was discharged several months ago for alleged corrupt practices. Other men who were discharged for alleged incompetency have been placed on the force, notably ex-Chief Detective Haze, who is made sergeant. Twelve gambling houses are running wide open in Omaha, the first in years.

Struck by a Train.

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 18.—Henry Beals Wilcox, aged 74, judge of probate in Madison for many years, was struck by a train at Madison while attempting to pass in front of the engine to reach the mail car with a letter. He was thrown in front of an eastbound train. His skull was fractured and the injuries will doubtless prove fatal. Judge Wilcox was the trial justice in the well known Mary Stannard murder case.

Arabs Board a British Bark.

GIBRALTAR, Sept. 19.—The British ship Feluca Virgin de Los Angeles, which arrived here yesterday, reports that while she was becalmed off Alhucemas, a small island of the coast of Morocco, a party of Arabs occupying eight boats boarded her and carried off part of her cargo. The Arabs also took £60 in specie, which they found in the captain's quarters.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

A dispatch from Madrid says that the government has arranged with Paris bankers for a credit of $4,000,000 sterling for the war in Cuba.

General Antonio Ezeta sailed from San Francisco yesterday for Mexico on his expedition to regain control of the government of Salvador.

It is rumored that Marquis Imperiali, secretary of the Italian legation at Washington, is about to exchange places with Signor Malaspina, secretary of legation at Brussels.

Judge John Garber, of San Francisco, commenced his argument for Mrs. Stanford in the United States court of appeals yesterday in the suit of the federal government against the Stanford estate.

CHICKAMAGUA FIELD.

Veterans on the Battle Ground of Thirty Years Ago.

ARMY OF THE CUMBERLAND.

Senator Manderson, of Nebraska, Delivers His Annual Address at the Reunion of the Society, Which Is Held Beneath a Big Circus Tent.

CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 19.—If one may judge of the events of the last ten days the Mason and Dixon line has been wiped off the map. The friendly, brotherly feeling that has been displayed here this week, and that was shown at Louisville last week by the boys of the Gray towards the boys of the Blue, the bitter sectionalism that has so long divided the Union no longer exists.

For nearly a fortnight now, the doors of the south have been open for those who came here thirty-three years ago bearing arms of slaughter and destruction. Not a single incident that would indicate a feeling of hatred on either side has been recorded. "Yankees" and "Johnny Rebs," grown gray with years, have gone over the great battlefield together, discussed the events of those awful days, drank together, and even in some instances slept together without stirring up anything like an angry thought. Generals who commanded armies for the Union have been the guests of the generals of the Confederacy, and each has solemnly declared that there is "no north and no south."

Chattanooga is an enterprising town with 40,000 inhabitants. Both the town and the people have every look of prosperity. The people have done as much for the entertainment of their northern visitors as any one could wish. At early dawn the town and surrounding country awoke. In less than two hours there was a general exodus from town to the battlefield. There were bands of music followed by regiments of militia. There were thousands upon thousands of battle-scarred veterans, and there were thousands upon thousands of men, women and children, who personally never knew what war was. There were carriages, wagons and vehicles of every description in which the people rode.

The cars, electric and steam, were loaded to the guard rail. Many of the vast throng looked over the field of Chickamauga, sadly remembering the awful scenes in carnage and death they had witnessed there thirty-three years ago, but all felt a thrill of joy to know that old wounds had healed and the hatred was no more. Such were the conditions that prevailed yesterday at the preliminary exercises attendant upon the dedication of the historic battlefield and the National park, which will occur today.

It is doubtful if P. T. Barnum in his palmiest days ever saw such a crowd at his circus as assembled beneath one of his old three ring tents in this city last night. The occasion for this great gathering was the reunion of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland. A large number of veterans belonging to the Society of the Army of the Tennessee, who came here from Cincinnati, were present as guests. The veteran, General J. D. Morgan, of Quincy, Ills., vice president of the society and who is now past 80 years of age, presided in the absence of General Rosecrans, the president.

When the meeting had been called to order General Morgan introduced Mayor Ochs, who made the address of welcome. Response was made by General H. V. Boynton, secretary of the association. Following General Boynton, General Morgan made an address of welcome to the Confederate veterans, after which Senator Charles Manderson, of Nebraska, delivered the annual address to the society.

To Resign from the Bench.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 19.—It is rumored here that Chancellor Wolcott will resign from the bench and be a candidate for senator to succeed Senator Gray, should the latter go to the supreme bench. He will also be attorney for the Pennsylvania Railroad company, it is said.

Stabbed at a Wedding.

HALIFAX, Sept. 19.—It was reported here that during a wedding ceremony near Meat Cove a fight occurred in which Hugh, Alexander, John and Allen McEacheren and John Donohue were stabbed by John Barton with a large jackknife. Three of the wounded men are not expected to live. The place is one of the wildest on the Cape Breton coast, where laws are set at defiance, and it is believed that the culprit cannot be taken without the assistance of military force.

Found Murdered Under a Bridge.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Sept. 19.—Thomas Thowley, aged 74 years, an inmate of the soldiers' home at Hampton roads, Va., was found dead beneath a railroad bridge at Conshohocken. Thowley was on a visit to his son, having arrived yesterday. He had considerable money with him, but when found his money was missing. There were several marks on his head, and he is believed to have been robbed and murdered and his body placed beneath the bridge on the Philadelphia side.

Pulled from Under a Trolley Car.

READING, Pa., Sept. 19.—Willie Swartz, aged 12 years, was knocked down by a Penn street trolley car in front of the Grand Opera House, and fell lengthwise under it. He was dragged some distance before the car could be stopped. The conductor pulled the boy from under the car. His injuries consisted merely of abrasions of the skin. His escape from instant death was miraculous.

Robbed by Pickpockets.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 19.—A gang of professional pickpockets made a big haul at the Union depot upon the arrival and departure of trains for Chattanooga. There was a rush to get out, and during the rush John Williams of this city was robbed of $1,500 in money and checks and other passengers for smaller amounts. The thieves escaped.

NEW JERSEY REPUBLICANS.

Their Convention at Trenton Today Well Attended.

TRENTON, Sept. 19.—The Republican state convention met here this morning, and is largely attended. The state Republican committee selected Congressman Mahlon Pitney as temporary chairman. The situation is very much mixed. Griggs and Kean are clearly in the lead, but the votes which the other candidates will receive will prevent either of the leaders getting enough votes on the first ballot to nominate. As between Griggs and Kean the former seems to have the advantage.

Voorhees and Ward are both banking on being nominated as a compromise candidate. The Ward strength, however, has for the most part a second choice divided between Kean and Griggs, and it is doubtful if it can be kept in line for Ward after one or two ballots. The complexion of the Essex delegation, after it leaves Ward, will have much to do with the nominating of either Kean or Griggs.

Mr. Griggs' name will be presented by ex-Senator Garrett A. Hobart, who, with Congressman Stewart, Senators Williams and Thompson, ex-Speaker Holt and Sheriff Toffey, of Hudson, are among his chief lieutenants. J. Gardner Roll, of Union county, will present Mr. Kean's name to the convention.

Senator Voorhees says he expects to have more than a hundred delegates, and he counts upon holding the balance of power in the convention and receiving the nomination as a compromise candidate. Senator Voorhees' supporters are very sanguine. His name will be presented by Senator Stokes.

Delaware's Ex-Speaker Dead.

BUFFALO, Sept. 19.—Samuel Biddle, ex-speaker of the Delaware legislature, died here at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. Bowen Moore. The body will be interred at Wilmington. Samuel Biddle was born in Cecil county, Md., in 1809. He removed to Wilmington, Del., in early manhood, took an active part in Whig politics, and in 1855 was elected speaker of the Delaware house of representatives. During the war he was provost marshal of Wilmington. At the time of his retirement from active business two years ago, he had held for twenty years an important position in the office of the first comptroller of the United States treasury.

Mr. Iselin Complimented.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—The Pall Mall Gazette, commenting upon the letters which passed between Lord Dunraven and New York yachtsmen regarding the America's cup races, says that it desires to reopen the controversy so far as to make the opportunity to pay a tribute to the sportsmanlike behavior of Mr. Iselin. It is a pity, the article says, that Mr. Iselin's handsome offer to Lord Dunraven could not have met with action. The American yachtsman, the Gazette concludes, deserves the respect of all lovers of sport.

Sad Accident at the I. O. O. F. Ball.

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 19.—While going to the ball given in honor of the officers and representatives of the sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows at the United States hotel last night, Mrs. Theodore A. Ross, wife of the grand secretary of the sovereign grand lodge, slipped and fell, fracturing her thigh and receiving serious injuries. She was removed to her hotel, where, on account of her advanced age, fears are entertained for her recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Ross are from Baltimore.

Adulterated Cheese.

MONTREAL, Sept. 19.—The Dominion government has received a cable dispatch from Sir Charles Tupper, the Canadian high commissioner in London, stating that The North British Agriculturist, which recently stated that Canadian "filled" cheese was placed on the British market, will withdraw that statement editorially, and will explain that the adulterated cheese complained of came from the United States, and not from Canada.

Governor Hastings to Stump in Ohio.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 19.—Governor Hastings has accepted an invitation to take the stump for ten days in Ohio next month for the Republican state ticket. He will be accompanied by Private Secretary Better, and will speak in many of the large cities of the state. Governor Hastings and Attorney General McCormick are in New York city on private business, and will not return to Harrisburg before Saturday.

A Double Tragedy.

SCRIBNER, Neb., Sept. 19.—Since Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hartman, of this place, have been missing, and an investigation resulted in the discovery of a terrible tragedy. Mrs. Hartman now lies dead in the lower room of her residence, in the east part of town, with a bullet hole in her neck, and Mr. Hartman hangs to a rope in an upper room. The entire matter is a mystery.

Mrs. Mack Probably Indicted.

BUFFALO, Sept. 19.—It is understood that the grand jury of the federal court has found a true bill of indictment against Mrs. Mack, of Hamilton, Ont., the alleged accomplice of George Morrison, in the stamp counterfeiting scheme, and as soon as the indictment is reported, probably today, her case will be moved for trial.

To Select a Referee for the Fight.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—A meeting will be held at the office of a sporting paper in this city at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning for the purpose of selecting a referee for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight. Managers Vendig, Julian and Brady will represent the Florida Athletic club, Fitzsimmons and Corbett, respectively.

DEATH OR BANISHMENT.

Cuban Revolutionists to be Exterminated.

VERY PORTENTOUS ULTIMATUM.

The Spanish Premier Declares That in November the Island Will be Surrounded by Cruisers, and It Will be Freed of the Rebels by a Vigorous Campaign.

HAVANA, Sept. 19.—Madrid cable dispatches of Sept. 19 are published in this city. They give the official views of Senor Canovas del Castillo, of Madrid, acting for the government of Spain, concerning the rebellion in this island.

His manifesto is a carefully prepared document, bearing internal evidence of the closest thinking, as well as an intimate knowledge of the whole situation. It clearly is the government program under which General Martinez Campos will initiate his cool weather campaign. Coming from the highest authority in Spain its directness means much to all concerned.

The eastern end of the island will be freed from all rebels and their adherents. It will be war to extermination or surrender against all Cuban rebels, macheteros and the like. The military organization will be full and complete. It will be root and branch ~~work this time~~; no fool will be allowed to remain to create future disturbances. Hereafter Cuba will be for Spain. Spain will enter on the fall campaign with only one object in view—the immediate and absolute subjugation of the island. The portion of the rebels will be death or deportation.

Amid the many and very necessary precautionary measures, one will have an instant and appreciable effect on the rebels, who need arms, ammunition and supplies. Early in November when the war vessels are reinforced by the new gunboats, the whole island will be surrounded by two lines of war vessels. One line will cruise in an inner circle and one in an outer circle—practically a huge blocking fleet of some sixty modern warships. It is believed that this arrangement will absolutely preclude the landing of any men or supplies. It will isolate the rebels from all outside aid and sympathizers.

The government of Spain realizes the extent of this island's littoral—nearly 2,000 miles—and the many facilities it offers to the rebels and their allies for landing stores and men.

Senor Canovas del Castillo denounces the men in the field as "a band of bandits, to whom belligerent rights will not be accorded." "That kind of warfare," he says, "is wholly unknown to the Cuban rebels, whose sole object is robbery, murder and incendiarism."

The manifesto simply confirms what has been decided upon here in Cuba. It is an ultimatum of ominous portent to the rebels.

Eighteen persons were arrested here yesterday upon the charge of being concerned in the insurgent cause. Among the number arrested was the secretary of Julio Sanguilly, who several months ago was arrested and committed to Moro Castle on the charge of treason.

The Alleged Filibusters on Trial.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 19.—In the trial of the twenty Cubans charged with organizing a filibustering expedition yesterday's session was devoted to the hearing of witnesses for the government. Marshal Lannan told a detailed story of the capture of the Cubans, the substance of which has already been published. He was followed by Captain Nicholson, of the tug Taurus; Robert H. Graham, Albert Stout, Charles D. Righter and Lewis P. Bush, all of whom testified as to the hiring of the tug and the expedition. Their testimony contained no new developments.

More Spanish Consuls for Florida.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—An evidence of the active efforts being made by the Spanish government to frustrate the departure of filibustering expeditions from the south to Cuba is afforded by the appointment of four Spanish consular officers for Florida alone. The Spanish minister called at the state department with a statement obtained from the Spanish consul at Key West, that the Lark, the schooner seized yesterday, was only a part of an extensive filibustering expedition fitting out in Florida waters.

Banker McKinney Turns Up.

STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 19.—News reached here of the finding of Glen Ford McKinney, son of a banker of Titusville, Pa., and his safe return to the hunting camp. On the day of his disappearance young McKinney had wounded an elk, which he followed until dark. He was forced to camp out that night, and the following day he met some other hunters, with whom he remained until he could get conveyance to his own camp.

Wrecked Off the Safe.

HOWELL, Mich., Sept. 19.—Burglars broke into the carpenter shop of M. J. Dempsey & Son, secured tools, and then forced an entrance to the saloon of Frank Smock. They loaded the safe on a push cart, and proceeded but a short distance when the cart broke down. They then transferred the safe to a wheelbarrow, trundled it a mile and then cracked it. It contained nothing.

Another Seizure of Smuggled Goods.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Sept. 19.—Another seizure of smuggled goods has just been made here, a recently opened jewelry store being raided and several cases of watches and valuable gems seized. All the property is of a character that could easily be brought into the country without the knowledge of the customs authorities.

Charged with Smuggling Diamonds.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Raphael Cordina, a Mexican youth, was arrested at the Palmer House, charged with smuggling diamonds. Gems to the value of $4,000 were found in his baggage. He claims the jewels were placed there without his knowledge by his father, a merchant at Vera Cruz.

PLATT IN THE SADDLE.

FOR THE BETTER ELEMENT TO SAY WHETHER HE STAYS IN.

FREEDOM, OR BONDAGE

The Independent, Conscientious Republicans of the State Have It Largely in Their Own Hands to Decide the Legislative Results in the Various Districts, and That Tells the Story.

Special Albany Letter.

Absolutely dominating the State convention and the legislative nominations of his party, Boss Platt was never, in his palmiest days, so absolute as today. The opposition could muster at best an insignificant handful of delegates on any test question before the State convention. In most of the senate and assembly districts the anti-Platt delegates permitted to sit in the conventions would figure in the scattering column. The iron will of the Boss has everywhere ruled, even down to the pettiest local office, and the iron hand and the iron heel have beaten and crushed out the hopes of the independent better element.

There is absolutely no escaping the alternative. The better element of the Republican party must defeat Platt at the polls, or by helping to elect his state and legislative candidates increase his strength and make him the absolute dictator of the situation in the Republican national convention next year, so far at least as the 72 delegates of the great pivotal Empire State are concerned. To suppose that he could be defeated in next year's caucuses after he had been strengthened by a victory at the polls and by new patronage and legislative munitions, when he could not be beaten this year, is too paradoxical a surmise to require discussion. It simply couldn't be done.

WILL THEY WEAR THE YOKE AGAIN?

Now the alternative presented to the better element of the Republican party is the simple one of whether it is in earnest in its desire to throw off the galling yoke of Platt domination. If it is, the way is clear and the means at hand. The place to do it, and the only place where it now can be done, is at the polls. At the polls neither padded enrollment lists nor snap primaries, nor illegal voters can avail to save the machine from the wrath of decent citizens, provided they all unitedly set their faces against it and strike a body blow at the very vitals of Platt supremacy. And the place to strike at is the legislature. Important as it is to defeat Boss Platt's State ticket, and energetically as every good citizen's time and thought should be devoted thereto, a defeat that still left Boss Platt the legislature would be but half a defeat. It would scotch the snake, not kill it; it would leave the head to plot and the heart to warm into life.

WHAT THE LEGISLATURE IS TO PLATT.

It is a notorious fact that all through Boss Platt's political career he has striven first of all for control of the legislature. Practical politicians understand why this is so. Control of the legislature puts a political boss in a position whereby he may levy tribute upon corporations. To secure the passage of some laws and to defeat the passage of other laws large sums are thus paid into the treasury of the Republican Boss—a fact repeatedly charged by reputable newspapers of his own party and not denied by his own organs. The machine keeps no books; the revenues thus derived are invested as the Boss sees fit. His opponents know by experience that a large slice of it is likely to be used in controlling the primaries at which the unbiased and independent thought of the better element of the party is thus rendered of none effect by the votes of heelers, floaters, place-holders and bribe-takers. Then again it is well-known that the Republican machine is in the habit of doing handsomely in the way of funds for the campaign by its various legislative candidates; these contributions however, they are expected to regard not as an assistance from the common party funds, but as a personal obligation to the Republican state machine and its leader. These facts may help to explain why it is that so many legislators elected as anti-machinists suddenly become converted to Plattism in the Albany atmosphere.

THE ESSENTIAL LINK IN THE LONG CHAIN.

Thus it will be seen that the control of the legislature is the most important link in an endless chain of Platt domination. The legislature means big campaign funds; big campaign funds mean boughten primaries; boughten primaries mean the legislature again for the Boss. Every vote cast by a better element Republican for a Republican legislature this fall will necessarily be a vote for a Platt legislature and a continuance of the galling bondage of the Platt machine which he is striving to cast off. But to lose the legislature would be a blow between the eyes for Platt, for the reasons already pointed out as well as many others.

It may as well be understood that not more than two or three Republican senators and not more than half a dozen Republican assemblymen will be anti-Plattites next year. The "anti-Platt victories" on legislative candidates have been simply a part of the old machine game of bunco so successfully worked in other directions. The nomination of Weaver over Coggeshall in the Oneida district, loudly proclaimed at first as a victory of reform, is now well-known to have been a Platt game, engineered by Platt and Hackett from the start. Weaver, if elected, would be as docile a Platt lieutenant as Coggeshall with little of Coggeshall's ability. Such is precisely the case in the Saratoga district, where, with a flourish of trumpets, Senator Donaldson was set aside and Major Brackett nominated.

ONE WAY TO DO IT.

One favorite trick has been to have two Platt men run against an anti-Platt man. One of the Platt men would usually be supposed to be the favorite, and would draw the anti-Platt fire while the other Platt candidate quietly worked the caucuses. The great "anti-Platt victory" of Malby for senator in the St. Lawrence district might have been gambled on four months ago, as it was all arranged at or shortly after the close of the legislature between Platt, Malby and ex-Senator Kilburn, Malby being received back into full communion by the Boss and his nomination sanctioned on that basis. Senator Higgins was also renominated as an organization man and nothing else.

But in some districts sharp practice of this sort would not answer. Then the machine had to fight. In John Raines' district, although the machine called snap primaries in harvest time, and did all in its power to prevent a fair and full expression of the voters, a change of 30 votes would have beaten that notorious "statesman." To suppose that he can possibly win at the polls, regardless of the big Republican majority back of him, is to assume that the decent voters of his district are indifferent to questions striking at the very root of popular self-government.

HOW CLARK WAS SHUT OUT.

Then there was the 45th (Niagara, Genesee and Orleans). Niagara county was entitled to the senatorship. Senator Pound stepping out, Assemblyman Clark became fairly entitled to it. But Clark was too independent, too downright honest for the machine. The anti's actually carried the primaries in Niagara, but the machine by underground politics stifled the popular will and controlled the county convention. It is said that if right were done this particular Platt victory would be brought to the attention of the grand jury. Here, again, it is unbelievable that the honest rank and file of the Republican party can support the senatorial candidate foisted upon it by sharp practices of so infamous a sort.

Whether in New York, or Albany, or Chemung county, or Rensselaer, or Orleans, or Onondaga,—for from all sides come the same stories of snap primaries, padded enrollments, illegal voting, etc.—the practices of the Platt machine are directed primarily to the legislature. Platt might well afford to throw overboard the entire crew of 1892 accidents, or any other state ticket, if he could thereby retain the rich pickings of the legislature and the stepping-stone to continued supremacy thereby afforded him.

A SEVEN-YEARS STRUGGLE.

For seven years of Democratic governors and Democratic tickets close attention to the legislative candidates and a gerrymander kept the Platt machine alive. During most of that time, it kept Platt himself in the lucrative office of quarantine commissioner, which finally the courts compelled him to relinquish. And during all that time reputable Republicans freely charged that state tickets were ruthlessly slaughtered by Platt simply to save his legislature and his own high-salaried office—on which point, perhaps, Ira Davenport and Warner Miller could give interesting testimony.

What another Platt legislature means, aside from the question of its value to the Boss in retaining his political power, the voters of the State may judge for themselves by the record of the Platt legislature of 1895.

POLITICAL FREEDOM THE ISSUE.

The question of legislative candidates this fall in fact largely resolves itself into a situation well stated by the Republican Buffalo News in the following editorial paragraph:

"If Boss Platt is allowed to go into Niagara county, Chemung county, Monroe county and other counties of the State, and through his agents dictate matters of local interest in these various counties, what is the use of having a party? What is the use of attending caucuses, and, finally, what is the use of voting? The people are disfranchised by such doings. If the people cannot choose their own representatives they have lost their political rights. This is the vital point of the opposition to Plattism and Bossism. Political freedom must be had at any cost."

And the only way to obtain political freedom is by the vote of the people at the polls against a continuance of Platt legislatures and Platt domination.

A. E. H.

BRIBERY ALLEGED.

Direct Charges Made in a Certain Platt Victory.

Two months ago or more, before a single caucus had even been called in the 45th senatorial district, the Albany Journal (Platt Rep.) announced that things had been arranged so that ex-Senator T. E. Ellsworth would be the nominee. When the caucuses were held, the anti-machine element in Niagara county, favoring Assemblyman John H. Clark for senator, won a majority, but the machine managed to control the county convention by only five majority, through the action of the four delegates from the town of Porter who were pledged to Clark and against the machine but voted with the machine throughout the county convention.

Charles H. Wilson, of Youngstown, chairman of the town of Porter caucuses at which these delegates were elected, when asked by the Buffalo News (Rep.) what would be the outcome of their action, said:

"Wait until election day and you will find out. We shall either put up an independent candidate or vote for the Democratic candidate, provided the Democrats put up an honest man. We will not vote for such a man as Ellsworth. To show you what the feeling was let me tell you that we had four dozen bad eggs bought on the night of the convention waiting for Eaton and Moon to come home. They didn't come, but if they had, they would have got the benefit of the entire four dozen."

"You say they sold out?"

"Yes, and it can be proven. Eaton was promised the school commissionership and Moon got something more substantial. I won't say how much. Oh, I can tell you that there is a very bad feeling down there and you may look for very strange results on election day. There may be an independent ticket for senator yet."

THE HUSTED DYNASTY.

A Probability That It Will Not Always Rule in Westchester.

Assemblyman James W. Husted, "son of his father," has a red-hot fight on his hands for renomination in the 3rd Westchester district. It is bad enough, from the Husted point of view, that there should be presumptuous opposition in "father's district," but what makes it worse is that the opposition is conducted by John Smith, Jr., one of "father's proteges."

Smith is reported as saying that the Husted dynasty has ruled this district and appeared in the assembly for a quarter of a century now, and he believes some one else has a right to take a chance in the wheel of fortune.

Another clue is given by Smiths frequent remark: "They have turned down one old soldier, now let them turn down another." The first old soldier referred to is Senator George W. Robertson.

Smith has ample financial means and also has many friends in both parties. He is gaining support from Sing Sing and other towns.

Fraud Charged in Troy.

The Troy Budget, (Rep.), conducted by ex-Senator C. L. McArthur, directly charges that "there is overwhelming evidence of frauds at the Republican caucus held in the fifth ward" the other evening. "Congressman Black and Sheriff Collins live in this ward and are popularly held responsible by the public for the way Republican caucuses are run in that ward." The Republican machine everywhere appears to be this year indifferent to popular sentiment so long as frauds can crush it and prevent its expression.

So Everywhere.

That Democratic government means low taxes is once more shown by the figures in the city of Niagara Falls. This year's Democratic rate will be twenty dollars, seventy-one cents and four mills on the thousand. Last year the Republican figures were twenty-one dollars, four cents and two mills on the thousand, which shows a gratifying reduction for this year.

A CRISP CRUST

Is the making of a pie. The making of a crisp crust depends largely upon the shortening. Use COTTOLENE, the new vegetable shortening, instead of lard, and sogginess will be an unknown element in your pastry. Cottolene should always be economically used—two-thirds as much Cottolene as you would ordinarily use of lard or butter, being ample to produce the most desirable results. The saving in a year represents a considerable item. There are many imitations of COTTOLENE; you should therefore be careful to get the genuine.

Sold everywhere in tins, with trade-marks—"Cottolene" and steer's head in cotton-plant wreath—on every tin. Made only by

HERE TO-MORROW.

Interesting Features of the Street Parade of Buffalo Bill's "Wild West."

The streets of our city will be enlivened, Friday, by one of the most novel sights that has ever been witnessed. It can truthfully be said that never before has a cavalcade embraced delegates from so many different races, people and nations.

The red royalty that roved the continent when Columbus landed will represent the fast disappearing race—"the last of Mohicans"—marching by the side of his erstwhile foe, now friend, the scout and frontiersman. United States cavalry will carry "Old Glory," the star spangled banner, alongside the English-Irish Royal Lancers and the Cross of St. George. The French Chasseur will be in amity with the German Cuirassier, with the tri-colored drapeau of "La Belle France" waving in harmony with the black eagle of Germany, while the noted Cowboy Band will add patriotic impulse to each with the strains of "God Save the Queen," "St. Patrick's Day" and "Yankee Doodle." As this assemblage of sons of fighting forefathers march to the spirit of peace, the Russian Cossack from the Caucasus, the Gaucho of South America, the Mexican Ruralie, the Texas Ranger, the Asiatic Tartar, Spanish Vaquero, the Bedouin Arab, and that latest addition to historic horsemen, the American Cowboy, will form a collection—and all on horseback—that presages the dawn of universal friendship—the millennium.

THE ATLANTA EXPOSITION.

The Grounds Packed with People Anxious for a First Peep.

ATLANTA, Sept. 19.—The new Auditorium within the exposition grounds was packed to its remotest corners during the delivery of the addresses yesterday afternoon, all of which were received with enthusiasm. The program presented the novel kaleidoscope of ex-Governor Rufus B. Bullock, elected chief executive of the State by Populism votes during the reconstruction period, and now a leading citizen of Atlanta and director of the exposition, acting as master of ceremonies in introducing in succession to a Northern audience Mrs. Joseph H. Thompson, president of the women's board, and Booker T. Washington, the representative of the negro race.

This incident coupled with the appearance of negroes in carriages in the parade and the presence of the negro building on the grounds emphasized the recognition given to the race by this exposition for the first time in the history of such enterprises.

Standing on the banks of Lake Clara Meer, Mr. Luther Steininger directed the operations of the immense electric fountain, the greatest electrical creation in the history of the world. The single jet from the center of the machine suddenly began spouting, and as it rose above the banks of the lake the men at Paine's fireworks building began a salute of 100 bombs. The first bomb, thrown high into the air, notified the crowds around the grounds that the opposition had really started and great cheers rent the air.

This closed the regular program, and the great crowd distributed itself over the grounds and the buildings for a first peep at the big fair whose formal inauguration they had just witnessed. The opening was a complete and unequivocal success and the exposition begins with every good omen in its favor.

GENTRY DEFEATS PATCHEN.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 19.—John B. Gentry, the fastest stallion in the world, yesterday added another to the list of victories which brightens his remarkable record by beating Joe Patchen, his most formidable rival, in three straight heats at the fair grounds. No records were wiped out, and the two pacing kings did not show the speed which they have proved themselves possessed of, but the time was such as only these horses and one or two others, Robert J. among them, could have possibly made.

The fastest mile, which was the first paced, was done in 2.05¼, and the fastest quarter in :29 provided no mistake was made by the official timers, and there seemed to be an impression among some of the persons who held watches that this was the case. This was the final quarter of the third and last heat, and McHenry drove Gentry hard and was closely pressed most of the way by Vera Cupello, the fast Wisconsin mare, who was in the race to make a record for herself and to urge the others on if they should need it, which turned out not to be the case.

The exhibition was a fine one and the only thing that marred it was Patchen's failure to get started in the last heat, he losing his feet and being practically out of the contest as they left the wire. Twenty thousand people saw the race.

ROBERT STEWART, Chairman Democratic Judiciary Convention 1894
Attest—JOSEPH FITCH Secretary Democratic Judiciary Convention, 1894
Dated Brooklyn, Sept, 14th 1895

DEMOCRATIC SENATORIAL CONVENTION

The Democratic electors of the Twenty third Senatorial District are hereby requested to send forty-eight (48) delegates to represent them in the Senatorial Convention, to be held at the Casino, in the city of Middletown, on at 2 o'clock p m The said delegates to be apportioned as follows Rockland county, sixteen (16) delegates, Orange county, thirty-two (32) delegates, to be apportioned to the several towns and wards, as follows. Each town and ward to elect one delegate with the exception of the town of Deepark, which is requested to send three delegates.

E A. BROWN, Chairman
MICHAEL McCABE, Secretary.

Senatorial Committee: A S. CASSEDY, S D ROBERSON, GEO H PIERSON, CHAS M. VAIL, JOHN P WALSH, GEORGE DICKEY, J. BOGERT SUFFERN.

Dated Newburgh, Sept 10th, 1895.

TOWN OF WAWAYANDA.

The Democratic electors of the town of Wawayanda are requested to meet at the house of Wm. H Green, in Iate Hill, on Thursday, Sept. 26th, at 2 o clock in the afternoon, to elect delegates to the con entions called and hereafter to be called, and to transact other business that may come before the meeting.

Town Committee: D W REEVE, M B AUSTIN, C C FULLERTON.

Dated State Hill Sept 17th, 1895

The Democratic convention at Monticello, yesterday, was one of the most harmonious ever held in Sullivan county. The State delegates are Frederick Hartig, of Livingston Manor; Frederick Buckley, of Liberty, and Sidney E. Wenzel, of Callicoon Depot. The Senatorial delegates are Elmer Winner, A. D. O'Neil, Charles McCune, Charles De Kay and Thomas Pendell. County Judge George H. Smith was chosen delegate to the Judiciary Convention.

In the New York Court of Special Sessions, yesterday, many milk dealers were sentenced for selling watered milk. In some cases the sentences were very heavy. John V. Coffey, a grocer at 361 Seventh avenue, was sentenced to pay a fine of $300 and serve three months in the city prison. The milk that he sold was seven per cent. water and twenty-nine per cent. skimmed. It was his third offense. Gerhardt Feen was given $100 fine and thirty days; David Block, of Secaucus, N. J., $200 or thirty days and several $100 or thirty days.

The Republican bosses who favored saying nothing on the excise question, tried to juggle with Warner Miller's "Sabbath observance" plank. Before the resolution was offered a desperate effort was made to induce Mr. Miller to substitute a weaker word for "maintenance," but although State Chairman Hackett pleaded and Henry G. Burleigh wept, Mr. Miller would concede nothing and insisted on a resolution that would commit the party to the "maintenance of the Sunday laws in the interest of labor and morality." When the resolution was read by Secretary Kenyon, who is a "safe" man and equal to any emergency, "enforcement" was substituted for "maintenance," and the resolution was made almost meaningless. There was much confusion at the time, and the attempted juggling would have succeeded had not wide-awake newspaper correspondents, who knew of the unsuccessful attempt to induce Mr. Miller to change his resolution, defeated this bit of sharp practice and sent out the resolution in the form in which they knew it was written.

ROCKLAND COUNTY IS ALL RIGHT.

From the Nyack Star.

Saturday's harmonious Democratic convention at New City is a forerunner of better things for the Democracy of Rockland County. It means that the differences which of late have torn the party asunder have been buried and that this fall we will present a solid front to the enemy and rout them, as we have time and time again when we have been united. A Democratic Assemblyman will be elected from Rockland this fall, and we will give a rousing majority to the Democratic Senatorial candidate, whoever he may be. Democrats, get in and work for victory.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

A Farmer Meets Death While Climbing Over a Barbed Wire Fence.

Manville T. Greenleaf, a farmer who lived two miles from New Berlin, was struck and killed by lightning during the shower of Monday afternoon.

As he was alone when killed, the manner of his death can only be judged from the position in which the body was found. He had been cutting corn, and had apparently started for home when the storm came up. A low wire fence surrounded the field, and he had put some of his tools over the fence and had taken hold of it, preparatory to climbing over. Indications are that the lightning struck the fence some thirty-five rods from where he was, about a dozen posts being splintered at that point, and passed along the wire until it entered his body. When found Mr. Greenleaf's body was lying under the fence, a corn knife in his right hand, while his left hand, which had grasped the wire, was much discolored and burned.

MCQUOIDS IN BINGHAMTON.

The Bearers of the Gift to Mechanic Hose Royally Entertained—President Gavin's Speech.

President James Gavin and Messrs. John Walsh, J. C. Egan, John Farrell, Thomas Gillen and James Short, of McQuoid Engine Company, the delegation sent to Binghamton to present Mechanic Hose Company with a handsome clock and candelabra, were met at the station on their arrival in Binghamton by a delegation of members of the Parlor City company.

The visitors were escorted to the Arlington Hotel, where quarters had been secured for them, and for several hours were royally entertained by their hosts in sightseeing and social intercourse.

At 9:30 o'clock a banquet was served at the Arlington Hotel, at which were present Mayor George E. Green, Recorder Downs and Dr. Wagner, of the Binghamton State Hospital, and about one hundred members of Mechanic Hose Company.

The visitors were warmly welcomed by Mayor Greene and cordially invited to make the most of the following excellent menu:

MR. MAYOR, MEMBERS OF MECHANIC HOSE CO., AND CITIZENS OF BINGHAMTON:—Once more we have the pleasure of being with you. As I gaze about this room, to-night, I see many familiar faces, and have already had many warm hand shakes. We come here, to-night, on a mission somewhat different from our former visit, one year ago. A mission of friendship on one hand and pleasure on the other. Ever since we were your guests, last year, at the meetings of McQuoid Engine Co. the name of Mechanic Hose Co. has always been mentioned, and never without a tumult of applause. And it was the unanimous voice of the company that we should send a delegation to visit Mechanic Hose and to present them with some token of recognition of the royal reception and many courteeies which were extended to us one year ago. Gentlemen, I well remember, and I vouch that every member of McQuoid Engine Co. well remembers, the happy night that we first met in our own city of Middletown. We recognized in you, gentlemen, the most noble specimens of manhood, stalwart and robust, with manly countenances that reflected credit upon the city from which you came. That very night it was apparent that these comingled characteristics designed you not only to interest the firemen of Middletown, but those that came from other points as well. These most admirable qualities you demonstrated when you received us with open arms on the eve of August the 30th, 1894. The company in selecting an article that was thought appropriate to present on this occasion, decided on this clock and candelabra that you see before you, and I take great pleasure as President of McQuoid Engine Co. to present to the Mechanic Hose this article, which is something that will register the true standard time and hope that every tick may be one of friendship, good will and harmony between Mechanic Hose Co., of Binghamton, and McQuoid Engine Co., of Middletown; and that it may add one more link to the already well established long chain of friendship.

The gift was accepted on behalf of Mechanic Hose Co. by Recorder Downs, who also officiated as toastmaster. Speeches were also made by President Burke, of Mechanic Hose, Mayor Green, Dr. Wagner and others.

The delegation will remain in Binghamton until this afternoon.

IN ANCIENT GOSHEN.

The Ladies of St. James' Guild to Send a Missionary Box—Some Personal Notes—The Children's Favorite Play Ground—Apropos of Darkness.

From a Special Correspondent.

—The ladies of St. James' Guild held a meeting at the chapel on Monday afternoon, at which meeting it was decided to send a missionary box, this fall, to the Rev. Mr. Holworthy, of Oregon.

—A number of Goshen people attended the county fair at Newburgh, to-day.

—Miss Geneveive Ludlum, who has been visiting her brother at Denver, Col., has returned to her home in this village.

—Miss Ethel Hosford, who has been spending part of the summer with her aunt, Mrs. E. L. Frost, in this village, has returned to home in Brooklyn.

—It is a strange thing that there is no place in which children enjoy romping and playing noisy games so much as they do in a graveyard. Doubtless this is because children are unconscious of the tragedies of life and consequently, as a general thing, unsympathetic to such an extent that even the presence of a person in mourning garments who has entered the cemetery in which they are engaged in play, in order to place some remembrance upon the last resting place of a lost friend, is powerless to check their laughter or their joyous shouts. There is something pathetic, too, in the contrast between their clamor and the silence about them, between their incessant motion and restlessness and the immobility of those who sleep beneath their dancing feet. To the average healthy child the thought of death is not especially appalling; apparently his chief feeling concerning it is one of curiosity. But to the imaginative child, and you do see such an one occasionally, it is full of terrors. It appears to us in modern times that one of the old fashioned ideas of our ancestors was rather an unkind one, —that which decreed that children should be made familiar with death, and should be obliged to gaze upon its face. To a child of nervous and sensitive organization this must have been a cruel shock, and one can imagine how, after such an experience, when it had been put to bed and left to that outer darkness to which the youngters of that age were nightly consigned, how that darkness must have been peopled with rigid, white faces, over which had passed the awful and inexplicable change that comes with the parting of soul and body. How it must have started up trembling from its sleep, still haunted by that vision which, for it, had only terrors!

—Even grown people occasionally find the darkness oppressive. It is much easier to borrow troubles, real or fancied, at night than in the broad light of day. Very often, too, when our outward vision is obscured, our inward perceptions are much clearer and we discern a difficulty or danger that lies ahead of us with startling clearness. There is such a mystery about the night, and sometimes it seems as though the shadow of all the evil and crime that are being wrought under cover of its blackness rest upon our spirits with an actual weight. THE CITY.

The lilacs in my garden blow,
Wide meadows ring my garden round.
In that green wood wild violets grow
And pale frail cuckoo flowers are found.
For all you see and all you hear
The city might be miles away,
And yet you feel the city near
Through all the quiet of the day.

Sweet smells the earth, new washed with rain.
Wet leaves gleam in the moonlight pale,
And in the wood behind the lane
I hear the hidden nightjar tell.
Though field and wood about me lie,
Soft hushed in dewy deep delight,
Yet I can hear the city sigh
Through all the silence of the night.

For me the skylark nests and sings;
For me the vine her garland weaves;
The swallow folds her glossy wings
To build her nest with my cottage eaves.
But I can feel the giant near,
Can hear all day his sad slaves weep,
And when at last the night is here
I hear him moving in his sleep.

Oh, for a little space of ground,
Though never a flower should make it gay,
Where miles of meadow lapped me round
And leagues and leagues of silence lay!
Oh, for a wind hushed, treeless down,
A black night and a lonely way,
A silence deep enough to drown
The voice that mocks me night and day!

CHINESE GORDON.

The Famous Englishman's Resignation and Prophetic Message to the Khedive.

A correspondent writing to The Scottish American says: One chilly morning at Suez, in the winter of 1879-80, I received a message from Colonel Gordon. He had just landed from Suakin, and wished to see me. I found him seated in a room at the old Suez hotel, with his black secretary and trusty factotum, Mohammed El Tohamy, and a few friends, including the governor of the town.

Poor Mohammed El Tohamy, who was destined to see his master fall at Khartum and probably shared his fate, was looking cold and miserable, and I noticed he was sipping some hot mixture of which the aroma did not seem familiar.

On my entering, Gordon exclaimed:

"I have resigned the governor generalship of the Sudan and am returning to England. The khedive's ministers dared to send me instructions, and so I have resigned. Now, tell me honestly, what will the world say of my work in the Sudan after the years I have spent there? What is the apparent result?"

I said something to the effect that his name would live and be remembered.

"Aye," he rejoined, "but what visible trace remains of my exile and labor? It is now God's will that I should abandon my task, and there is absolutely nothing to show—nothing for the world to gaze at except"—he added this with a curious smile and pointing to the shivering son of the tropics at the other side of the table—"except, perhaps, that I have taught my Mohammedan secretary to drink hot toddy at 10 in the morning."

Certainly Gordon's work was not intended for show. At Alexandria he had an audience with the late khedive, Tewfik Pasha, at which he tendered his resignation, and then, removing his fez, the badge of allegiance, addressed some words of stirring advice to his highness, "as from an independent English gentleman." Before embarking for Europe Gordon wrote a famous telegram to the khedive—"Mene, Mene, Tekel, Upharsin"—which was shown to me and to the correspondent of a great London newspaper, but it is a question whether it was ever dispatched from Malta. In any case, it was curiously prophetic. Within two years the Sudan was in open revolt and Egypt under foreign control

Both Averse to Interference.

At the corner of Fourth avenue and Smithfield street a lady from Glenwood entered a crowded outgoing car. The conductor knew who she was, and that she resided in Glenwood. He suspected that she had made a mistake, and that she thought she was on a Second avenue car, so he crowded up the aisle and politely inquired:

"Where are you going, lady?"

"That's my business," she tartly replied.

The conductor said nothing more, and the car sped along through the dark, crossing the Monongahela through the covered Tenth street bridge and rapidly putting space between it and Glenwood. When it entered the big Knoxville inclined elevator and stopped, nobody said a word. After a minute's wait up the precipice it started, leaving the sparkling electric lights far below.

"My goodness," screamed the Glenwood woman to the conductor, "where is this car going?"

"That's my business," dryly replied the conductor.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

CHEMICAL ANALYSIS and a careful microscopical examination of the urine, is a valuable aid in determining the nature of many chronic diseases, particularly those of the nervous system, blood, liver, kidneys, and bladder. These aids make it possible to treat such diseases successfully at a distance, without personal examination of the patient. Thus Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Bladder, Gravel, and other Diseases of the Urinary Organs, "Liver Complaint," Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Dropsy and many other maladies are successfully treated and cured without personal consultation with the physician.

Nervous Debility, whether resulting from over-study, worry, disappointment, or from exhausting drains upon the system caused by pernicious secret habits contracted in youth, through ignorance of their ruinous consequences, is successfully managed, through correspondence, the necessary medicines being sent by mail or express. Write for question blanks, or describe your case, send sample of urine for analysis and enclose 21 cents for postage on 1000 page Book which contains photographs and names and addresses of vast numbers of people cured in this way. HEART DISEASE, like many other ailments when they have taken hold of the system never gets better of its own accord, but Constantly grows worse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and Don't know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the case of Mr. Silas Farley of Dyesville, Ohio who writes June 19, 1894, as follows:

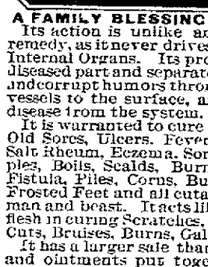
"I had heart disease for 23 years, my heart hurting me almost continually. The first 15 years I doctored all the time, trying several physicians and remedies, until my last doctor told me it was only a question of time as I could not be cured. I gradually grew worse, very weak, and completely discouraged, until I lived, propped half up in bed, because I couldn't lie down nor sit up. Thinking my time had come I told my family what I wanted done when I was gone. But on the first day of March on the recommendation of Mrs. Fannie Jones of Anderson, Ind., I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart and wonderful to tell, in ten days I was working at light work and on March 19 commenced framing a barn, which is heavy work, and I have not lost a day since. I am 56 years old, 6 ft. 4½ inches and weigh 250lbs. I believe I am fully cured, and I am now only anxious that everyone shall know of your wonderful remedies."



Dyesville, Ohio. SILAS FARLEY.

SECOND COMING OF CHRIST.

Eminent Divines Who Believe This Doctrine Are Planning a Notable Convention.

A number of prominent clergymen who believe in the second coming of Christ are arranging for a conference in Allegheny City from Oct. 29 to Nov. 1, inclusive, the object of which shall be the study of the Bible prophecies regarding Christ's return to earth and an exchange of views on this very interesting subject. The Rev. Dr. W. G. Moorehead of Xenia, O., and the Rev. Dr. W. J. Eardman of Philadelphia have charge of the programme.

REV. A. T. PIERSON, D. D.

"We are not to be classed as cranks," said a prominent minister who believes in the second coming of Christ, "but hold a doctrine which is gaining rapidly. It is asserted by one of the leading ministers of the Presbyterian church that there are at present five ministers committed to this interpretation of the prophecies where there was one ten years ago. Some of the greatest minds of the country are in line on this subject, and we will show this in the convention which will doubtless be held.

"What we believe is simply this: A thousand years before the final judgment Christ will come personally to the earth and inaugurate his kingdom of righteousness. At that time there will be a resurrection of all the righteous dead. The resurrection of the wicked will not take place until the end of the 1,000 years, and then the final judgment will be held. Whether the Lord will remain on the earth during the millennial period we do not pretend to say."

Among the prominent clergymen who are expected to address the conference is Rev. Dr. Arthur T. Pierson of Philadelphia, one of the leading Presbyterian clergymen of the country. Dr. Pierson was born in New York in 1837, and at the early age of 15 was graduated from Hamilton college with high honors. He studied for the ministry at Union Theological seminary, was licensed to preach in 1859 and was pastor of the Congregational church, Binghamton, until 1863, when he returned to the Presbyterian faith and filled pastorates at Waterford, N. Y., and Detroit. In 1883 he became pastor of Bethany Presbyterian church, Philadelphia, and while in England in 1889 and 1892 repeatedly filled the pulpit at Spurgeon's famous Metropolitan tabernacle.

HE WAS A KICKER.

And the Fact That the Other Man Didn't See Why Was Nothing to Him.

"I had to raise a row back in the dining car," said the baldheaded man as he entered the smoking car looking so upset that he was asked what was the matter. "It's a thing I hate to do, but these corporations should be made to understand that the traveling public have rights."

"Wasn't the dinner all right?" he asked.

"Not by a long way! I asked the waiter to bring me some fat pork fried rare, and after keeping me waiting for ten minutes he returned to say that quail on toast was the very best he could do. I wanted some coffee made from old grounds, with milk in place of cream, and do you know they brought me some fresh made Java and said I'd have to make it do! I'm a great hand to eat frower butter, but the waiter pretended they hadn't such a thing on hand and rather insisted that I take fresh Orange county. As I said before, I hate to make a kick in public, but one must do it to get fair play."

"I don't see what excuse you had for kicking," said the man with the brier root.

"Oh, you don't! You are one of the sort that can be walked on and never say a word. I wanted mashed potatoes with lumps of the half done vegetable left in, but do you think I got 'em? No, sir! I'm a great hand for dried apple sauce, but the waiter brought me fresh blackberries and wanted me to accept the substitute. I like my glass of milk at least half water, but they brought me some with cream on top. I like cucumber pickles, but the only things they had were gherkins and olives. They found out their mistake, however, when they tried to ride over me."

"As I said before, I don't see"— began the man with the brier root, when the kicker interrupted him with:

"Oh, of course not! Probably traveling d. h. and afraid to say your soul's your own. I prefer to eat with a knife and fork having no handles, but they pretended to have none. I never eat with a cloth on the table if I can help it, but they refused to remove it. I always use a towel for a napkin, but they said it was napkin or nothing. Lastly, they insisted that I sit down and eat. They have evidently been having their own sweet way on this line for years past, and it astonished them not a little when I kicked. I'll raise another row with 'em in the morning, and perhaps they'll get it through their heads that they don't run all North America."

"My dear sir"— began the man with the brier root.

"That's enough!" chipped in the kicker. "You are a fishworm and willing to be walked on. I am a kicker and want and will have my rights. Yes, sir, and through me the public will be benefited, and I'll bet 10 to 1 that in less'n a year the traveler on this very train who wants a glass of sour milk won't have champagne shoved at him as a substitute."—Detroit Free Press.

"He Was a Railway Porter."

A thin man, with a distressing cough, was hurrying some portmanteaus and trunks in front of a west end shop the other day when the proprietor of the place appeared and asked:

"Looking for a portmanteau, sir?"

"Yes."

"He sells the best 20 shilling bag ever made, and I'm the only one that sells 'em at less than 25."

"No good," replied the thin man, with a sorrowful shake of his head. "One of these trunks wouldn't stand the journey from here to Bradford."

"What! I'll warrant 'em to go round the world. Take hold of one and bang it about and convince yourself."

"Do you give me leave to test its strength?"

"Of course I do. Take hold."

The man with a distressing cough drew in a full breath, called out, "By your leave there!" as if warning a platform full of passengers, and then took hold of the trunk. Rip went the handle, bang went the locks, and as he stood it on end and upset it and flopped it back again one hinge broke loose, and it split in two.

With a twist of the wrists he gave the two halves a slam bang, which completed the wreck, and, with a bow to the seller of portmanteaus, he joined the crowd and disappeared.

"Upon my soul," gasped the proprietor as he viewed the ruins, "but I made a mistake in him! He's a railway porter instead of a dying traveler."—Sheffield Telegraph.

LIZARDS IN A TRANCE.

One Medical Authority Regards It as a Kind of Hypnotism.

An English scientific journal has received an interesting communication on the subject of the so called "death feigning instinct" of certain reptiles.

The correspondent, who writes from Syria, says that when a certain species of Egyptian lizard is captured it makes a few vigorous efforts to escape, and then, if held firmly, falls into a limp, motionless state, which might easily lead an inexperienced person to think it dead. The animal, however, is simply in a trance-like condition.

Gentle respiratory movements are visible just behind the shoulders and sometimes show a rising and falling rhythm with short intervals of complete rest. The eyes remain wide open, but are commonly half closed, and the lids wink slowly from time to time spontaneously or by reflex action. The mouth is almost open, sometimes wide, sometimes but little, and in either case the jaw is quite rigid, and if closed by force is apt to reopen when the pressure is withdrawn. The limbs lie extended and semiflaccid, with some approach to a cataleptic condition—i. e., if bent or stretched into position not too strained, they maintain such positions when let go—and the same is true of the trunk and tail.

A pin may be run through a fold of the skin without fully arousing the animal, a slight, feeble wriggle being the sole result. The trance usually lasts about five minutes, when the animal, by a brusque effort, assumes its normal position. This done, it lies quite still, but evidently awake and observant for a few moments more, and then scuttles off in a hurry.

Dr. Van Dyck looks upon this manifestation not as voluntary or conscious death feigning, but as a form of hypnotism. The natural enemies of these lizards are foxes, jackals, martens, birds of prey and snakes.

"Can any one believe," asks Dr. Van Dyck, "that any one of those animals, having captured a lizard, would be in the least inclined to let it go because it lay motionless and apparently dead in the captor's grasp? Or will it be argued that the trance condition is a special gift 'in mercy to the victim, to mitigate or abolish the pain of death?' "—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Saved His Life.

What Munyon's Remedies Did For A Prominent Ohioan.

He Could Eat But Little and Was in Constant Pain Cured With One Bottle.

W. T. Loffer, a well known resident of Kent, Ohio, says that Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure undoubtedly saved his life. In realating his experience he said: "For a long time I have been afflicted with dyspepsia. I could eat scarcely anything and was in constant pain. The gas on my stomach distended it greatly and my heart became affected. I was troubled with short breathing, fluttering and irregular beating of the heart, and often the pain was so great that I thought I was going to die. My friends wanted me to try Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure, but I had tried so many different medicines without being benefited that I thought this would be only one more fruitless effort. Finally I began using it, and the result was wonderful. After the first bottle I could eat without discomfort, and am now thoroughly cured.

Munyon's Stomach and Dyspepsia Cure cures all forms of indigestion and stomach troubles, such as constipation, rising of food, distress after eating, bloating of the stomach, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath and all affections of the heart caused by indigestion. It soothes, heals and invigorates stomachs that have been weakened by over eating, or where the lining of the stomach has been impaired by physic and injurious medicine. Price 25 cents.

Munyon's Homeopathic Home Remedy Company, of Philadelphia, put up specifics for nearly every disease, which are sold by all druggists, mostly for 25 cents a bottle.

Those who are in doubt as to the nature of their disease should address Professor Munyon, 1505 Arch street, Philadelphia, giving full symptoms of their disease. Professor Munyon will carefully diagnose the case and give you the benefit of his advice absolutely free of all charge. The Remedies will be sent to any address on receipt of retail price.

Infant Health

SENT FREE

It is a matter of vast importance to mothers. The manufacturers of the GAIL BORDEN EAGLE BRAND CONDENSED MILK issue a pamphlet, entitled "INFANT HEALTH" which should be in every home. Address NEW YORK CONDENSED MILK CO., 71 Hudson Street, New York.

HOW TO FEED BABIES.

Easy to Keep Them Well in This Weather.

They Take to Lactated Food as to Their Mother's Milk.

Teething and Weaning Neither Difficult Nor Dangerous.

When a child rejects its food, is restless, constantly crying, and shows no gain in weight, the food is at fault. The little one is suffering from indigestion and rapidly losing ground. Strength must necessarily decline, and it is lucky if a sudden rise or fall in temperature, such as September always brings with it, does not cause a fatal attack of diarrhœa or cholera infantum.

Overloading the child's stomach with poorly nourished food, aggravated by the changes in the weather, is the cause of nearly every case of cholera infantum. Sudden changes in temperature, with improper feeding, bring diarrhœa and convulsions.

But with the use of proper food, and there is nothing so absolutely good as lactated food, this danger may be entirely avoided. Statistics show that babies thrive best on lactated food. It is worth more as a preventive of cholera infantum than all the medicines ever made.

The superlative importance of pure, nutritious infant food, and the long study of infant disorders caused by mistakes in diet, led to the preparation of lactated food. Next to pure mother's milk, it is the most nourishing, strengthening, readily digested and palatable food that can be given a baby. It more closely resembles mother's milk than any other food known. Its basis is sugar of milk, which is the basis of mother's milk. With it is combined the nutritive elements of wheat, barley, and oats in such proportion as best meets the requirements of the growing child.

In all cases where nursing is inadvisable or impossible, the infant's health is best protected by weaning and using lactated food altogether.

Thousands of babies fed from a very early age on lactated food have never known a sick day. And as many more little ones have been saved by this best of infant nutriments—lactated food.

GOSHEN VS. PORT JERVIS.

Goshens Are Defeated by a Score of 12 to 5 in a Seven Inning Game—Very Yellow Umpiring.

From our Goshen Correspondent.

The Goshen Base Ball Club, accompanied by a number of "rooters," went to Port Jervis, yesterday, and was defeated by a score of 12 to 5. Owing to the rain, play was not began until late in the afternoon, and after seven innings had been played the game was called on account of darkness.

The crowd in attendance was orderly, and the game was not marred as the previous one had been by crowds flocking on the field and creating disturbances. The only fault the Goshen club had to find with the game of yesterday was the umpiring. Now, it is not a new thing in base ball games to find fault with the umpire, but yesterday the Goshen club had just cause to find fault. The umpire chosen by the Port Jervis club was secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Port Jervis. He may be up in the above-named organization, but he is far from up to date in umpiring, as he made a number of decisions which undoubtedly helped Goshen to lose the game. His intentions were without doubt all right, but that didn't help the Goshen players any.

The Port Jervis club scored three runs in the first inning on errors by Lawlor, Tierney and Kieran, and in the second inning they scored seven runs on errors by the Goshen team. The old reliable Danny Kieran made a wild throw over first base, in this inning, when three men were on the bases, and before the ball was returned to the field all the runners had crossed the plate. After this inning Tierney went in and relieved Charlie Lancy, and during the remained of the game only two runs were scored.

The Goshens managed to touch up the crack Paterson pitcher, Coogan, for eleven base hits, three three-base hits and a two-base hit. Among the features of the game was a long running catch made by "Dick" Kipp.

The following is the score:

BEFORE THE RECORDER.

A Plain Drunk Fined $3—A Drunk and Disorderly Let Go to save Him From Suicide.

John Kennedy, an old time offender, was again in the toils on a charge of drunkenness. Fined $3 or ten days.

John Burck, a lather, aged 20, got fighting drunk, last night. He wanted to "clean up the town," and Officer Tyrrell had a tussle with the fellow before landing him in the lock-up. He threatened to commit suicide if locked up in Goshen Jail, so the Recorder let him go with a reprimand.

Struck by the Gate at an Erie Crossing.

Mr. L. D. Cox, a farmer of near Circleville, started to drive across the Erie tracks at the Montgomery street crossing at 8:17 o'clock, last night. The gates were being lowered at the time and Mr. Cox was struck across the bridge of the nose, splitting that member and otherwise bruising his face. Officer T. Walsh, who was in the neighborhood, accompanied Mr. Cox to the office of Dr. Hulett where his wounds were dressed.

The Erie's New Postal Cars.

The first of eight modern postal cars, which the Erie is building for use on its several lines, was turned out of the Buffalo shops a few days ago. As soon as the second car, which is well under way, is completed, the two will be run on trains 1 and 18 between New York and Buffalo.

A Busy Young Doctor—Prices of Farm Products in Iowa—Don't Like the New Apportionment—A Splinter in His Eye—A Hint to Trolley Road Builders.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—Norman Currie, a young doctor who recently graduated, has commenced practicing in this place, and is quite busy and is well liked.

—School has commenced in this place with Miss Lizzie Crawford as teacher.

—I received a letter from Samuel Young, of Dow City, Crawford county, Iowa, a short time ago. He says that he raised 1,100 bushels of oats and has about forty acres of corn. Oats are worth there 12½ cents per bushel, old corn, rye and barley twenty-five cents each per bushel, eggs eight cents per dozen and butter ten cents per pound.

—J. Erskine Ward, of Thompson Ridge, is on the sick list. Grip is the cause.

—The Democrats of this town are not well pleased at being put in the First Assembly District but will do all they can to make it Democratic, and we hope the Republican Board that put us there will soon have cause to regret it.

—A. R. Vanderlyn had the misfortune to run a splinter in his eye and had to call on Dr. Currie to remove it. He now wears a bandage over his eye.

—I think the proper thing now would be to connect Walden and Middletown with a trolley road running through this place, as it is quite a direct and easy route and I think it would do a good business.

—Miss Helen Traphagen, a stepdaughter of B. B. Odell, Jr., of Newburgh, is visiting at her aunt's, Mrs. James Ward's, in this place.
